

Message from Natural Disaster Youth Summit Committee

It is our pleasure to hear that Government of Trinidad and Tobago, National Committee of UNESCO, iEARN Trinidad and Tobago and other organizations collaborate and announce the official opening of the Natural Disaster Youth Summit in 2008 in Trinidad and Tobago, today.

Ultimate goal of NDYS is to create safer world for everyone on this planet. As the concrete activities, children around the world study together and work together to decrease the suffering form the natural disasters and create safer world. Those who join in this project will grow as leaders of the world in future. We strongly believe that children can make a difference in the world.

Natural Disaster Youth Summit Committee is an organization which consists of iEARN, UNESCO, Hyogo Prefecture, Hyogo Prefectural Board of Education, Kyoto University and some other organizations

Kazuko Okamoto and Yoshie Naya as representatives of NDYS committee salute and congratulate you on your official opening of NDYS2008 in Trinidad and Tobago.
