

Global Disaster Safety Map Exhibition

Winning against Natural Disasters

About 20 Disaster Safety Maps created by children of Kobe and other countries who learn the lesson from Great Hanshin-Awaji Earthquake and other disasters in the world are exhibited along with their photos introducing their activities. The Disaster Safety Map Exhibition and the Natural Disaster Youth Summit (NDYS), Global Internet Video Conference will be held at Disaster Reduction and Human Renovation Institute (HAT Kobe) as a prelude of the conference in Aichi. This Internet video conference is open to public, we are waiting for your participation.

Period: 27th February to 18th March, 2007

Venue: Disaster Reduction and Human Renovation Institute

Host: The Committee of NDYS

Sunday, 4th March, 13:30—15:40

Global Meeting through Internet Video Conference

Host: iEARN (International Education And Research Network)/ Hyogo Earthquake Memorial 21st Century Research Institute/ Hyogo Prefectural Board of Education, Hyogo e-School
Kobe University: International Maritime Education & Research Center Faculty of Maritime Sciences, Research Center for Urban Safety and Security/ UNESCO
Kyoto University: Graduate School of Global Environmental Studies

Special support : NICT(National Institute of Information and Communications Technology)
Language Grid Project

NDYS
2007
in Aichi

International Video Conference through the Internet
防災世界子ども会議
Natural Disaster Youth Summit

Date: Sunday, 4th March, 13:30—15:40

Students of five countries who experienced various natural disasters recently, such as Iran, Taiwan have an international conference through the Internet
 They introduce their Disaster Safety Maps and discuss lessons from natural disasters around the world in real time.

Program

13:10	Video	“Commemorative Tree Planting as the reminder of the Great Hanshin- Awaji Earthquake "Kawazu" cherry trees at "Haru Ichiban no Oka
13:30	Opening	Master of Ceremony : Students Opening Remarks
	Message	Mr. Salvano Briceno, director, UN/ISDR (Tentative)
13:40	Special Speech	”The Importance of Learning from Recent Disasters for Disaster Reduction and Disaster Reduction Education at School” Mr. Masahiko Murata, Recovery Expert,IRP Kobe
14:00	Future Education On Natural Disaster	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sri Lanka / Nepal Mr. Genata Nakano, Student of Ritsumeikan University Representative of NDYS 2005 Students Committee Pakistan Mr. Koichi Shiwaku Graduate School of Kyoto Univ., Committee member of NDYS
14:30	Video Conference NDYS	About five countries and regions, such as Iran, Taiwan, Nepal, Russia, and Trinidad and Tobago are connected to Disaster Reduction and Human Renovation in Kobe through the Internet, and the group of children representing each country has an oral presentation for disaster reduction study.
15:30	Comments	Mr. Ryoichi Uetani Hyogo Prefectural Board of Education
15:40	Closing	Closing Remark

After the video conference, we have tea, coffee and snacks at the restaurant in Human Renovation Museum (1,000 yen)
E-mail : ndys@jearn.jp Tel or Fax: 078-251-6833 NDYS Office: Naya, Okamoto